Sled Island Lineup 2009

Posted by The Man About Town in Culture Snacks on May 1 2009 17:59

The Sled Island Music and Arts Festival announced the majority of its lineup today with a press conference at Broken City.

A big change this year is that the main stage venue has moved to Olympic Plaza which will be a pretty great place to see some of the great acts who'll be in town.

Acts that include The Breeders, Liars, Anvil, Andrew W.K. and local acts like Azeda Booth, Women and the Agnostic Mountain Gospel Choir.

I'd write about more but it is Friday at 5 and I'm off to enjoy some of this sunshine. So if you want to see the full line up of bands and venues check out the Sled Island website.
