CoS is having a party! A Sled Island party!

By CoS Staff on June 17th, 2009

Between June 24th and 27th, the third annual Sled Island Music Festival will return to Calgary, Alberta. Bringing with it a batch of stellar names, the festival includes The Breeders, Liars, Anvil, Ladyhawk, Final Fantasy, Andrew W.K., Obits, Monotonix, The Dodos, The King Khan & BBQ Show, Women, Holy Fuck, HEALTH, Japandroids, and many, many more. In other words, a four day music extravaganza will take place ...

... One, which we're honored to be involved in. That's right, kids, Consequence of Sound has the privilege of presenting its very own Sled Island showcase this year, and an unbelievably stellar Sled Island showcase at that!

On Friday, June 26th, Consequence of Sound will hit The Marquee and bring some serious noise. Scheduled to take part in the festivities will be a batch of North America's best noise rockers, including Calgary based outfits Mount Analogue, Puberty, and Mt. Royal, Vancouver's Twin Crystals, and Los Angeles' greatest thing since sliced bread (or Manny Ramirez), HEALTH.

Told you it was stellar, and noisy.
